In order to minimise losses of minor and minor matters in G.O. no 25556-64/M 174-31-71 of 11-2-32 delegated some powers to Deputy Comrs.

In the case of District Boards also the volume of trivial correspondence with Govt is also out of proportion to the actual control exercised. The delegation of powers to Deputy Comrs in this case would not be proper or expedient. In these circumstances it is suggested that the District Boards themselves may be given higher powers to sanction expenditure on small cases. A draft note embodiment of the powers that may be exercised by the District Boards is sent for consideration. The Financial Secretary may be consulted in the matter.

11) The delegation of powers to the District Boards is proposed with a view to minimise correspondence with Government and will be necessary only in cases where a large number of references is now being received by Government.

12) Item 2(a) Power to vary the scales of pay of permanent establishments. When the pay of an appointment is fixed, it is not desirable to permit deviations from it generally, especially in respect of scales of pay of permanent establishments. Such cases will also be rare.

The delegation of this power therefore appears ^{to be} unnecessary.

13) Item 2(b)-Power to employ temporary establishments. The need for this power is not clear. In any case, it is necessary to specify the maximum ~~number~~ period for which they could be entertained and the maximum pay to be allowed in each case.

14) Item 2(c) On principle, it is objectionable to allow allowances for doing extra work. The delegation of this power is therefore not desirable.

15) Item 3--It may be stated whether clothing is now supplied to the employees of District Boards. If so, the general order under which the supply is being made may kindly be put up.

16) Item 4--Power to admit in audit expenditure incurred but in support of which vouchers are not produced. The money limit of Rs 100 is high. It may be limited to Rs, 25/-

17) Item 5--This is too general. It is desirable to specify the classes of expenditure which can be incurred by the District Boards.

Rule 5 even as revised is too vague to be of any use. This may, I think, be omitted.
Rule 6(a) is put in merely because Rule 5 is general & may contravene the provisions of sec 45 (1)(1) and sec 74. If rule 5 is omitted, 6(a) becomes unnecessary.

All the rules do not come under cl (i) of sec 100 (2). For instance, the 1st rule regarding appointments come under v) & (r) rather than under (i). The note may therefore be as follows:—

"In virtue of powers vested under
